

Table with 13 columns (months) and 31 rows (days). Includes a detailed calendar grid with dates, days of the week, and specific events. A legend at the top right defines symbols for student absence days and event days. The bottom section contains a summary table for each month, including school year, lesson days, event days, and school opening days. A final section lists various school activities and their responsible departments.